19. The employees shall be eligible to house rent allowance at par with the State Govt. norms.

PART IV - Leave

20. Leave is earned by duty and cannot be claimed as right. When the exigencies of the University service so require, discretion to refuse or revoke leave of any description is reserved to the authority empowered to grant it.

21. A University employee, who is dismissed or removed from the University service but is reinstated on appeal or revision is entitled to count his former service for leave.

22. Leave ordinarily begins on the day on which transfer of charge is affected and ends on the day preceding that on which charge is resumed.

23. A holiday or a series of holidays may be allowed to be pre-fixed to leave by the authority competent to sanction leave.

 150 94

24. If a University employee is recalled to duty before the expiry of his leave, his 'duty' starts on the day on which he joins his post at the headquarters of the university. Till then he will be on leave. He will draw T.A. under the rules for the journey headquarters.
25. If a University employee is recalled to duty before the expiry of his leave, his 'duty' starts on the day on which he joins his post at the headquarters of the university. In such situation the employee will get T.A. as per rules for the journey performed up to the University headquarters.
26. Unless the University shall determine otherwise, an employee shall cease to be in service if he is continuously absent from duty five years, with or without leave. Willful absence from duty after the expiry of leave may be treated as misbehaviour. No leave salary shall be paid for the period of such absence, which will be debited against his leave account as though it were leave on half pay.

A University employee on leave may not take any service or accept any employment, without obtaining the previous sanction of the authority empowered to appoint him.

27. No University employee who has been granted leave on medical certificate may return to duty without first producing a medical certificate of fitness.
28. Any kind of leave under these rules may be granted in combination with or in continuation of any other kind of leave.
29. No leave shall be granted to an employee beyond the date of compulsory retirement, except to the extent of leave due to him and applied for by him but refused to be granted to him in the exigencies of service before the date of compulsory retirement.
30. If an employee's service is extended beyond the date of compulsory retirement he may be granted within the period of extension any leave, which having been refused, is being carried forward, together with such leave as may have been earned during the extended period. If in good time the leave due, in respect of the period of extension, is applied for and is refused in the exigencies of service, he may be granted after the expiry of the period of extension, the earned leave due on the date of compulsory retirement which on its refusal he is carrying forward plus leave earned in respect of the extended period minus the leave consumed, if any, during the period of extension subject to the maximum of 120 days.

The bottom of the page features several handwritten signatures and a circular official stamp. The signatures are in dark ink and appear to be of various individuals. The stamp is partially obscured by the signatures.

31. Leave or extension of leave on medical certificate shall not be granted to an employee after the date on which he is declared by a competent medical authority to be permanently incapacitated for further service.
32. The leave account of every employee shall be maintained in the form prescribed. No leave shall be sanctioned, unless the title there to is certified by the officer, who is required to maintain the leave account.
33. A service book shall be maintained for every regular employee of the University. In these books every relevant event in the employee's official life should be recorded, each entry being attested by the head of his office or an officer to whom the power has been delegated. At a fixed time preferably the month of January, the service books should be taken up for recording a verification certificate.
34. Earned leave for University employee who are not entitled to vacation ;
1. (a) A University employee who is not entitled to vacation shall be entitled to 30 days earned leave in every calendar year.
 - (b) The leave account for every University employee shall be credited with earned leave in advance in two installments of 15 days each on 1st January and 1st July every year.
 - (c) The leave at credit of a University employee at the close of the previous half year shall be carried forward to the next half year subject to the condition that the leave so carried forward plus the credit of every half year and shall be accumulated (No limit).
 - (d) A period spent on foreign service shall count as duty for purpose of this rule if contribution towards leave salary is paid on account of such period.
2. Subject to provision of sub clause (3), the maximum earned leave that may be granted at a time to a University employee shall be 180 days.
3. Earned leave may be granted to a University employee a period of 180 days but not exceeding the earned leave due to the employee if the entire leave so granted is spent outside India.

Provided that when the earned leave exceeds a period of 180 days, is granted under the sub-section of such leave spent in India, shall not in the aggregate exceed aforesaid limit of 180 days.

J.', then a signature that is mostly illegible but seems to start with 'A.', and finally a signature that looks like 'J. S.'. There are also some initials and marks scattered around these signatures.

35. *Earned leave shall be credited to the leave of a newly appointed University employee at the rate of 2 ½ days for each completed calendar month of the service which he is likely to render in a half year of the calendar year for which he is appointed.

1. (a) The credit in the half year in which a University employee is due to retire or resign from service shall be afforded only at the rate of 2 ½ days per completed calendar month up to the date of retirement or resignation.
- (b) When a University employee is removed or dismissed from service or dies while in service, credit to earned leave shall be allowed at the rate of 2 ½ days per complete calendar month in which he is removed or dismissed from service or dies in service.
2. If a University employee has taken extra ordinary leave in a half year the credit to be afforded to his account at the commencement of the next half year shall be reduced by 1/10th of the period of extra-ordinary leave subject to the maximum of 15 days.
3. While affording credit of earned leave fractions of a day shall be rounded off to the nearest day, i.e., fraction below half should be ignored and that half or more should be reckoned as a day.

*36. Earned leave for persons entitled for vacation

1. University employee serving in a vacation post shall be entitled for earned leave of 12 days in respect of duty performed in any year in which he avails full vacation
2. The earned leave admissible to such a University employee in respect of any year in which he is prevented from availing himself of the full vacation is such proportion of 30 days earned leave as the number of days of vacation not taken bears to the full vacation. If in any year he does not avail himself of the vacation earned leave is admissible to him in respect of the year in accordance with the provisions of Para 36.
3. Vacation may be taken in combination with or in continuation of any kind of leave under this para provided that the total duration of the vacation and earned leave taken in conjunction, whether the earned leave is taken in combination with or not shall not exceed the amount of earned leave due and admissible to the officer at a time under section 25. Provided further that the total duration of vacation, earned leave and commuted leave taken in conjunction shall not exceed 240 days. If however the entire spell of leave or proportion thereof is spent elsewhere than in India the maximum limit shall be 240 days subject to the condition that portion spent in India. For the purpose of this rule the term year be construed not meaning a calendar year in which duty is performed but as meaning twelve months starting from the date of reopening of the University after summer vacation to a day before the reopening date of the next academic session.

4. The earned leaves will be cumulative at the end of every calendar year.

5. Encashment of Earned Leave:

At the time of superannuation the earned leave encashment shall be maximum of 240 days or as specified by the State Govt. norms.

*37. Half pay leave:

- (a) A University employee shall be entitled to half pay leave of 20 days in respect of each completed year of service. A completed year of service means continuous service for one year under the University and period spent on duty as well as leave including half pay leave and extra ordinary leave.

- (b) The half pay leave may be granted to a University employee on medical certificate or on private affairs. Such leave on medical certificate shall be given on production of medical certificate from such medical authority as the University may by general or special order prescribe in this behalf and for a period not exceeding that recommended by the medical authority. Such medical leave shall not be granted unless the authority competent to sanction leave is satisfied that there is a reasonable probability that the University employee will be fit to return to duty on its expiry.

Half pay leave on private affairs also shall not be granted unless the authority competent to sanction leave has reason to believe that the University employee will return to duty on its expiry or unless it is included in the grant of leave expressed to be preparatory to the retirement.

(N) Amended by approved by coordination committee Item no 64 dated 6,7 &12.2, 87 and as per the decision of EC dated 12.7.86.*

38. Commuted leave:

- (a) Commuted leave not to exceed half the amount of half pay leave due may be granted on medical certificate to a University employee subject to the following conditions:

- (i) When Commuted leave is granted twice the amount or such leave shall be debited against the half pay leave due.
 - (ii) No commuted leave may be granted unless the authority competent to sanction the leave has reasons to believe that the University employee will return on duty on its expiry.
 - (iii) Commuted leave shall not be granted preparatory to retirement.
 - (iv) Half pay leave upto the maximum of 180 days may be allowed to be commuted during their service (without production of medical certificate) where such leave is utilized for an approved course of any certificate or in the public interest by the leave sanctioning authority.
- (b) Where a University employee who has been granted commuted leave resigns from service or at his request permitted to retire voluntarily without returning to duty. The commuted leave shall be treated as half pay leave and the difference between the leave salary in respect of commuted leave and half pay leave shall be recovered.
- Provided that no such recovery shall be made if retirement is by reason of ill health incapacitating the University employee for further service or in the event of his death.
- Provided also that commuted leave may be granted at the request of the University employee even earned leave is due to him.
- Provided that the staff of vacation departments may also be granted commuted leave as earned leave without production of Medical Certificate subject to the following condition.
- (i) Not more than 10 days i.e. 20 days half pay leave may be granted as earned leave in a year.
 - (ii) Not more than 90 days i.e. 180 days half pay leave may be granted as Earned Leave during the entire service.
